No Book Left Unread (NBLU)
Summer Reading Challenge

Directions for Participation

1. Advertise the Summer Reading Challenge in your school.
2. Complete the school participation registration form and email to Martha Alewine (malewine@ed.sc.gov) by May 25, 2007.
3. Encourage student participation. Conduct student participation registration prior to the end of school. Collect student participation forms. (Prior registration is not a state requirement for student participation; it is a means to help library media specialists gauge anticipated overall student participation.)
4. Distribute copies of the Summer Reading Log to all interested students.
5. Include a link on your library web page to the Summer Reading Log file available on the School Library Media Services web page (http://ed.sc.gov/agency/offices/tech/ms/lms/).
6. Collect Summer Reading Logs when school begins.
7. Tally number of pages read over the summer.
8. Identify the student with the highest number of pages read.
9. Send your total number of pages read and the name of the student with the highest number of pages to Martha Alewine by August 24, 2007.
10. The winning school and winning student will be announced on the LMS Annual Start-Up Meeting, August 28.
11. The winning school will receive a box of new books, a Certificate of Achievement, and a letter of commendation to the principal and superintendent.
12. The winning student will receive a Certificate of Achievement, a selection of new books, and a letter of recognition to the principal.
13. All participating schools will receive a Certificate of Participation and a letter of recognition to the superintendent.

All questions should be directed to Martha Alewine (malewine@ed.sc.gov).